PORCELAIN WOOD

These beautiful, striking porcelain wood surfacers deceive the eye because they replicate the look of natural material quite brilliantly. The natural grain and warm tones of wood are delivered with the inherent practicalities and ease of porcelain. The LAPICIDA CURATES: NEW EDITIONS collection offers a range of wood-effect surfaces from large plant formats to herringbone.

Available in a choice of colours, finishes and sizes.

PORCELAIN STONE

Designed to work alongside natural materials but also to act as their perfect alternatives, porcelain stone looks similar to the genuine article but is lighter and thinner, making it ideal for the wide range of settings.

The LAPICIDA CURATES: NEW EDITIONS collection offers many different stone-effect surfaces for traditional designs to ultra-contemporary styles.

Available in a variety of tile sizes, colours and finishes.
